PRAISE MUSIC CLUB AIMS AND GROWTH AT BIG BANQUET

NUMBER OF CIVIC LEADERS GIVE EXPRESSIONS; NEW OFFICERS INTRODUCED

At 6:30 o'clock last evening about 200 representative people of Glendale, including business and social leaders, as well as music lovers and members of the Glendale Music club, gathered together in the social hall of the First Methodist church for the first annual banquet of this new musical organization, which was followed by a public program in the church auditorium.

The six long banquet tables were decorated with bouquets of corn flowers and marigolds, carrying out the club colors. The banquet was preceded by the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." A most delectable four-course banquet was then served by the ladies of the First Methodist church, who are to be complimented upon the lack of confusion, which usually accompanies the serving of such a large number of people.

Greetings From City

Owing to a special meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Glendale Music club, introduced Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the board of trustees, between courses. Mr. Stephenson brought greetings from the trustees, and through them from all the citizens of Glendale. He stated that when the trustees found that the club was making a drive for more members they went on record as endorsing the movement. Mr. Stephenson spoke very highly of the splendid civic organizations, women's clubs and fraternal orders in this city and said that he and the other members of the board of trustees were glad to welcome in the ranks this new organization, the Glendale Music club. He also emphasized the influence of music on the lives and characters of people and also of the benefits derived from such an organization by

Improving Oak Street Is Under Discussion

Proposed improvement of Oak street was discussed at a public meeting, held at the city hall last night, with the result that petitions for street work and curbs may be in circulation soon, action depending, to a large extent, on the verdict of the Oak Street Improvement association, which will meet Thursday night at the residence of F. A. Clarke, its president, 315 Oak street.

T. W. Watson, city manager, made a complete statement at last night's meeting, giving figures, estimated, on various kinds of pavements. A number of questions were asked and the discussion lasted for more than an hour. It was brought out that, contrary to the belief of some, Oak street has fire protection, the fire department not depending on the small service main in the street, but, in case of necessity, will use larger mains on cross streets.

A committee from the Oak Street Improvement association was present and obtained facts and figures to present to the association at the meeting Thursday night when, it is expected, a decision will be reached as to whether the street improvement is desired immediately.

It is probable that the petitions will be prepared so that the property owners can indicate the kind of paving desired. The petitions are to be prepared by the city manager's office.

A petition was filed several years ago by Oak street residents, but that petition is so aged, city officials say, that a new one is necessary.

Building Inspector's Salary Not Increased

Contrary to published statements and reports being circulated, the salary of the building inspector was not increased by the Board of City Trustees when the salary ordinance was recently adopted. The salary of F. A. Marek, superintendent of buildings, was increased, however, due to the fact that the department is steadily increasing and demands are greater. The salary of the inspector, however, was not increased, despite the reports to the contrary.

WELFARE LEAGUE MEETS

At a meeting of the East Glendale Welfare league in the Broadway school last night, issues and candidates at the coming election were discussed and another meeting was called for Monday night, June 27, the eve of the battle of ballots. It is expected to have several candidates present.

PUBLIC CONCERT BY LOCAL MUSIC CLUB WINS APPROVAL

VARIED PROGRAM IS FITTING CLIMAX TO MUSICAL WEEK; ARTISTS ARE PRAISED

As a most fitting finale of music week a public concert was given at the First Methodist church last night, under the auspices of the Glendale Music club, all but one number being furnished by members of the Burbank Choral club, of which Charles L. Munro is director and Mrs. J. H. Phillips, accompanist.

The first number on the program was a group of three organ solos by Wesley Kuhnle (a) "Variations de Concert" (Bonnet), (b) "Concerto No. 5" (Handel), (c) "Tocatta" (Dubois). Mr. Kuhnle is a member of the Glendale Music club and is a teacher of piano, pipe organ, harmony and counterpoint. He is a graduate of the U. S. C. College of Music, a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists, and is well known as a concert-pianist and organist.

Number by Burbank Club

The second number on the program was presented by the Burbank Choral club of forty-five voices, many of whom are solofsts of note. The director of this choral club was organizer and director of the Hollywood Apollo club, but now resides in Burbank. Their first selection was "Song of Liberty" (Beach).

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Glendale Music club, then spoke about the campaign for new members. This club was organized just a short time ago and now has 200 members. It is the desire of officers and members alike to bring to Glendale some of the best artists available. If enough members are secured in this drive, Mrs. Jones stated, some splendid talent may be brought to Glendale during the coming year. Most of the programs will be limited to members only. One of the aims of the Glendale Music club is also to support home talent, many artists being members of this club. Mrs. Jones emphasized the importance of the children being members

Miss Caryl Hurlbert Is Guest Of Honor

Miss Caryl Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue, who is one of Glendale's popular June brides-to-be, was the recipient Saturday evening of a very unique and elaborate miscellaneous shower at the home of her cousin, Miss Evalyn Henderson of Huntington Park. About twenty of Miss Hurlbert's friends were present to honor the charming bride-elect by presenting many useful and ornamental gifts to her.

The evening was spent by a short musical entertainment followed by dancing. Refreshments consisting of delicious punch and cake were served throughout the evening. The house was beautifully decorated with an artistically arranged combination of pink and orchid.

Miss Hurlbert, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue, will become the bride of N. T. Vincent of Hollywood on the evening of June 15. The affair will be one of the real social events of the season and will be attended by many local and out-of-town guests. Among the latter will be Mrs. C. N. Braasch of Portland, Oregon, who is Miss Hurlbert's grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Petticord of San Diego.

A group of twenty friends of Mrs. T. J. Morgan of 1142 Campbell street decided to assist in the celebration of her birthday anniversary yesterday by giving her a surprise party. Music, singing and dancing occupied the evening. A most delicious buffet lunch was served at 12 o'clock, which included a large birthday cake cut by the hostess. After wishing Mrs. Morgan many happy returns of the day the party broke up in the wee small hours.

ORDER S. P. COMPANY TO PUT GATES ON BRAND CROSSING

STATE RAILROAD COMMISSION INSTRUCTS PROTECTION BE PROVIDED IMMEDIATELY

Acting on its own initiative, the State Railroad commission has instructed the Southern Pacific Railroad company to install gates at the Brand boulevard crossing.

At the meeting of the Board of City Trustees a week ago, C. E. Kimlin, business manager of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, urged that the city take action to provide necessary protection at the crossing and T. W. Watson, city manager, was instructed to communicate with the railroad company officials. He got in touch with W. H. Whalen and dispatched the following communication to the company:

"Pursuant to our telephone conversation of this date relative to the stationing of a flagman at the Brand boulevard crossing over the Southern Pacific right of way:

"This matter was called to the attention of the board of trustees at their last meeting, Thursday evening, the 2nd inst. It was urged that immediate measures be taken to safeguard motor vehicle traffic at this crossing. It was pointed out that the opening of Glendale boulevard connecting Brand boulevard with the business center of Los Angeles has attracted a large volume of motor vehicle traffic to this route and that there is great danger of accidents occuring at this crossing with the possible loss of life.

"In view of the foregoing it was urged that the board of trustees call the Southern Pacific company's attention to this immediately with request that a flagman be placed at this crossing without delay until such time as plans may be worked out for some suitable automatic signal device that might be operated from the signal tower now stationed at this crossing.

"We appreciate your prompt re-

Business Property Is In Demand, Says Baird

That close-in business property will be scarce in the very near future is the conclusion reached by A. L. Baird, manager of the real estate and insurance department of the R. L. Kent company, 130 South Brand boulevard. He has recently sold the Essie Booth property on South Maryland avenue for building purposes. It is also understood that plans are under way for a two or three-story brick building on Maryland.

Proving the point made by Mr. Baird is the fact that Dr. E. H. Parker, of 426 North Maryland, has purchased, through the agency of Doner, Hemenway & Burn, the lot on the northwest corner of Brand boulevard and Lexington Drive, on which he plans to erect a store building, it is said. This will give a new outpost for the Brand boulevard business section on the north. It is rapidly growing south and Maryland avenue off Broadway is coming into its own with the Valley Supply company block and the Walker building. Two new store and office structures are now under construction on Glendale avenue.

Wedding Anniversary Fittingly Celebrated

Monday was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. M. Morehouse of 1000 East Lomita avenue as their forty-fourth wedding anniversary, they having been united in marriage on June 6, 1877, in Ontario, Canada. The couple have been residents of Glendale for the past twelve years, they having come here from Chicago in 1909.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse entertained at dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Morehouse and family of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Widmark of this city.

Mrs. George Selover To Arrive In City

Word has recently been received from Mrs. George Selover of Las Vegas, New Mexico, to the effect that she will arrive in Glendale about the middle of June to spend the summer in southern California. This will be welcome news to the many local friends made by Mrs. Selover on her visit to this city last year.

FORM HARROWER FOUNDATION TO CARRY ON CHARITABLE PROJECTS

Great Agency for Charity Is Incorporated; Plan to Eventually Make Work International

With the purpose of founding and aiding hospitals, asylums and schools conducted as charitable institutions, establishing scholarships, endowing professorships, equipping and maintaining laboratories, relieving poverty, pensioning officials and employes of charitable institutions, the Harrower foundation has been incorporated with the following named directors:

Newton G. Evans, Loma Linda; Dr. Henry R. Harrower, 345 North Cedar street, Glendale; James Howarth, 343 North Isabel street, Glendale; Percy T. Magan, and George Thomason, Los Angeles. Kemper B. Campbell is attorney for the corporation which has no capital stock.

Dr. Harrower today refused to talk on the subject, it being indeed a personal matter with him, but after he had left for the city, James Howarth, his office manager, was importuned for an explanation in view of the fact that the incorporation papers are a matter of record.

"The purpose of this organization," Mr. Howarth said, "is to extend the endeavors of the men mentioned as directors farther afield that it would be humanly possible for them to do alone.

"Already we are extending aid to a half dozen students," he continued. "We are presently conducting a metabolic laboratory in Los Angeles where research work of great benefit to the medical profession is being done.

"As you will note from our incorporation papers, this corporation is formed for eleemosynary and charitable purposes only and not for profit. Its objects are to engage in any and all lawful charities and to receive for charitable purposes any such money as may be contributed."

Practically all of those interested in this great enterprise for the benefit of humanity have been doing similar work through the White Memorial hospital in Los Angeles.

The Harrower Foundation undoubtedly is the nucleus for one of the greatest agencies for charity in the great southwest and as time carries it into the broad fields which its charter covers, there is no question but what the western lands and the Orient, too, will look here for a helping hand.

C. of C. Discusses Relief For Colorado

Relief for Pueblo flood sufferers was the principal topic of discussion of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors this afternoon after they had lunched at Goodyer's delicatessen. It was announced by Director Richardson D. White, superintendent of the city schools, that the City Teachers' club planned to present "The Deestrick Skule," again next Monday night to raise money for the Red Cross. The chamber will support this agency in collecting funds.

A Clean-up Day was considered and referred to the civic committee which will confer with the board of trustees. Mr. White reported on an auto park ground and said that if the Pacific Electric would not lease ground along the Burbank line, the only alternative would be to seek another site. The P. E. has gone on record as unfavorable to the project.

On motion of Director Daniel Campbell, the American legion sick fund benefit performance Wednesday night, June 15, at the Palace Grand, was indorsed. Director Owen E. Emery presented the proposition and told of the good work being done by the local legionnaries at Thornycroft.

IMPORTANT TO YOU

We have been placing in this paper from time to time an advertisement which was headed this way.

"Have you heard of the shallow oil fields at Canajo, Camarillo, Ventura County?" Well, a great many of our Glendaleons have responded gracefully by seeking information and after receiving same, they have in every case purchased an interest in this lease, where the well is drilling.

We wish to announce that the showing of the first well has been far beyond our expectations and we hope to announce in the very near future that the first well is on production. From the showing now, you should expect a fine well. Some of you have hesitated, but if you are going to secure your interest in this enterprise at the present price, you will have to act without delay. H. L. Miller Co., 109 South Brand boulevard. Mrs. Charles H. Toll Again Club President

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of 1635 Kenneth Road was again honored yesterday by being re-elected president of the Ebell club of Los Angeles, which position she has most efficiently filled during the past year. At the recent California state convention at Yosemite the Ebell club introduced the conservation measure for saving the redwoods. Mrs. Toll was the only woman of the southern part of the state on the board of "Save the Redwoods League." At the meeting of the Ebell club yesterday the announcement that Governor Stephens had signed the bill for the appropriation was warmly received.

Compulsory voting is written into the Czecho-Slovakia constitution. Every man and woman who is eligible to vote must do so or go to jail. As a result the will of the people is faithfully recorded.

QUESTIONNAIRE FOR 16 CANDIDATES TO CITY COUNCIL

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE OF GLENDALE SEEKS ANSWERS TO SERIES OF QUESTIONS

The Good Government league of Glendale is today sending by registered mail, a questionnaire to each of the sixteen candidates for the city council at the municipal election to be held June 28.

The Good Government league, in sending the questionnaire, states that each candidate should be willing to make clear his personal views on subjects of vital interest and welfare to the community. Refusal to answer the question will be taken by the league, it is stated, as an affirmative reply.

The league conducted a campaign for registration of voters and more than 1200 were registered, irrespective of political views. The registration campaign was nonpartisan, it being the desire of the league, it is stated, to secure as full a registration as possible, irrespective of individual views.

Here Is List of Questions

Here is the list of questions being asked of the sixteen candidates for the council:

Glendale, Calif., June 6, 1921.

To ————, Candidate for City Trustee, Glendale, Calif.:

The Good Government league of Glendale, sincerely desirous that all municipal offices shall be occupied by persons who, in its estimation, ar the best fitted therefor, and who appear to come the nearest to complying with the requirements incorporated in its declaration of principles, a copy of which is attached, does hereby respectfully request you to fill out the enclosed questionnaire.

This organization believes that, in so far as possible, each candidate for office should be willing to make clear his personal views on subjects of vital interest and welfare to the community he seeks to serve, and in this spirit the following questions are propounded:

A—How long have you been a resident of the city of Glendale?

B—Have you ever held an elective office in any city government?

The Constitution of the United States, in its first amendment, reads in part, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof," and the underlying principle of the Good Government league is an invincible belief in the inalienable right of every citizen to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." It being apparent that there is a wave of effort sweeping over our country which threatens to abridge and curtail these privileges, thereby bringing a sence of injustice and oppression, and fearing that this wave may reach our fair and contented city, this league, believing that the greatest good to the greatest number involves a broad minded attitude as opposed to factionalism, wishes you, as a candidate for city trustee, to answer plainly the following questions:

Refusal to answer these questions will be taken as an affirmative answer.

1—Do you believe that theatres should be closed on Sundays?

2—Do you believe that baseball and all other games and amusements innocent in themselves, should be prohibited on Sundays?

3—Do you believe that all business should be stopped on Sunday?

4—Do you believe that automobile pleasure riding on Sunday should be prohibited?

5—Do you believe that any sectarian body, as such, should attempt to control the affairs of the state or municipality?

6—Do you believe that every citizen should have the unquestioned right, within the established law, to decide how he shall spend each and every day of the week and that any effort to abridge that right is reprehensible and un-American?

The above answers are submitted by ————, candidate for city trustee.

If elected to office I will pledge myself to work for, and support all measures that will permit and allow every citizen to enjoy and exercise all of those privileges, as guaranteed to him, under the Constitution of the United States of America, and those which are embodied as a whole in the questions which are presented above.

(Signed) ————, candidate for city trustee.

In order that the Good Government league may have sufficient time to select candidates for endorsement, it will be necessary that your reply and signatures on these forms be received by the Good Government league on or before June 14, 1921. If no reply is received by that time the league will be compelled to consider the above questions answered, as indicated, by default.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lange of 328 West Vine street were among the many Glendale people who attended the actors' benefit last Saturday at the Beverly Hills speedway. They report a large crowd and a splendid time.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue, drove to Pasadena last week to visit the kindergarten at Lincoln Park school. Mrs. Camerer was taken ill on the way home and has been confined to her home for the past few days.

Earl X. Brown and William Reese, both former popular young men of this city, spent the past week-end in Glendale visiting old friends and schoolmates. On Friday evening they attended the exercises and dance of the local high school alumni association. Mr. Brown is now employed by one of the large commercial aeroplane institutions of Los Angeles, while Reese draws his pay check from one of the Hollywood movie studios.

Mrs. L. T. Rowley and daughter, Virginia, of 334 West Vine street took part Sunday afternoon in the reunion exercises of former students of the Downey public schools, which were held at Exposition park, Los Angeles. The reunion is an annual affair and is generally attended by the older graduates of the school. Mrs. Rowley, who attended the institution in 1870, was one of the oldest members present. About fifty ex-Downeyites attended the affair, which consisted of a picnic dinner, speeches and an excellent musical program.

Mechanical Exhibit Is Made At High School

BY A. R. OLIVER
Head of Mechanical Department

During the few days remaining before the closing of school for the summer vacation the above department will collect and tabulate the various articles that have been constructed by the students during the past school year.

In the mechanical drawing rooms the walls are adorned with the most intricate and varied designs in machinery and architecture drawing that would do credit to any commercial drawing office.

The machine shop has on display some very accurate work, in several instances the limit error allowed being one-thousandth part of an inch. If you are skeptical, come and view these wonderful finished products, and I am sure you will see your son in a different light after you are convinced that he actually is constructing something that requires brain work, concentration, steadiness of nerve, and seriousness of thought and purpose.

The forge work is of different construction. Having no machine to work for him, the student must of necessity work up his project through a refracting iron medium, a truly efficient training for the eye and hand, at the same time providing him with a sense of real proportion which he would otherwise not have received.

Shakespeare Section Holds Annual Picnic

The annual picnic of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club was held yesterday afternoon at Eagle Rock park, at which time Mrs. A. H. Montgomery was elected curator for the coming year. There were twenty-five members present and a most enjoyable time was experienced. Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, was guest of honor. A picnic and birthday party combined added to the pleasure of the members, yesterday being the birthday of Mrs. H. W. Ralston, member of the section, in whose honor a birthday cake had been made by Mrs. Colin Cable.

Upon being elected curator for the coming year, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery in her response extended an invitation for the members to be guests at a luncheon at her home the first meeting day in the coming club year, which will be the first Monday in October. Mrs. J. E. Lyons will be instructor of the section again next year. Mrs. O. E. Von Oven, retiring curator, made a few remarks, as did the curator elect and also Mrs. Hutchinson.

The report was made of the result of the entertainment given recently by the section at the Masonic Temple, $57 being cleared. This will be turned over to the new club house building fund.

Decorations For C. E. Convention Discussed

A very peppy meeting of the decoration committee for the State Christian Endeavor convention met last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stoler, 339 West Colorado boulevard, to discuss plans for decorating the tabernacle, churches and hanging several electric signs.

The different churches of Glendale were represented as follows: John Server, Phoebe Snell, Tropico Presbyterian; Marjorie Tyler, Congregational; H. B. Freeman, Baptist; Alice Watson, First Methodist; Mabel Overton; Frances Musser, A. Mattice, Leslie Bennett, Margaret Overton, Harry Marple, R. P. Jodon, Ruth Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Stoler, Central Christian.

Everyone has promised to do his part and from the way things are progressing this convention will go off with a bang.

After the business meeting, games and music were enjoyed, after which Mrs. Stoler served delightful refreshments of hot chocolate and cake.

There will be another meeting of the decoration committee next Monday, June 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jodon, 123 South Kenwood street. Every member is urgently requested to be present as there are a large number of plans to be made and discussed.

OVERCOME BY FIRE

Frank L. Bowe, an employe at the Astra Film studio in Verdugo Road, was overcome from heat and excitement while fighting a fire which threatened the big stages of that plant yesterday morning. The fire department was called and extinguished the blaze after an hour's work. Laborers burning rubbish had made a fire break, but a flaming brand got away from their watchfulness with the result that five acres of hillside were scorched.

giving to its members the best in music.

Chamber of Commerce

Mrs. Jones then introduced C. C. Cooper, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who extended greetings from that body and assured the members of the Glendale Music club of their co-operation to promote this music club. He then presented Mrs. Jones, as president of the club, with a gavel, something which should be included in the equipment of any organization of this size. Mrs. Jones stated in her response to Mr. Cooper's presentation that the Glendale Music club had grown so rapidly that time had not yet been taken to secure all the necessary supplies and expressed her appreciation that this civic organization showed its confidence in the growth of this new music club.

Tuesday Afternoon Club

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, was then introduced, and extended greetings from this women's club and assured the music club of the co-operation of all of the officers and members of the Tuesday Afternoon club. She also emphasized the remarkably rapid growth of this new club.

Charles Wakefield Cadman, nationally known composer, and who was the special guest of the evening, was then presented by Mrs. Jones. The theme of Mr. Cadman's address was "Youth and Music." Mr. Cadman has received his entire musical training in America. He stated that he was very much impressed with the enthusiasm and sincerity which has characterized the growth of the Glendale Music club and also was very much pleased to see that a splendid co-operation had been extended by the civic authorities.

Beginning With Youth

Mr. Cadman spoke of the importance of beginning with the youth, both in music as well as business, and told of how Europe was really ahead of America in this respect. Another interesting topic taken up by Mr. Cadman was the establishment of musical libraries, which are being installed in eastern cities. Mr. Cadman spoke of the Junior Music club of Eagle Rock and stated that he was in favor of having these clubs organized in every town throughout the United States. Mr. Cadman spoke of the importance of music clubs to the American composer, who he says owes a great deal of gratitude to these music clubs and women's clubs of this country. Until ten years ago, he stated, the American composer had very little recognition. The music clubs, he stated, are becoming a sort of clearing house for these composers.

Mrs. Jones informed Mr. Cadman that Glendale had both a juvenile music club and a junior music club, which unlike clubs in other cities were auxiliaries of an established music club. The junior auxiliary, she stated, has a membership of 80 and the juvenile auxiliary a membership of 60.

Compliment Extended

Mrs. Jones then introduced little Betty Hagood, pupil of her mother, Mrs. L. N. Hagood, who as a courtesy to Mr. Cadman, played one of his compositions, "An Indian Camp" (March Grotesque), which was very heartily received. Miss Betty Hagood is a member of the juvenile auxiliary.

Vernon Spencer, composer, was unable to be present. Rebecca Brant, pupil of Mrs. Eva Cunningham and also a member of the juvenile auxiliary, played "To a Weeping Willow" (Spencer), most excellently.

In the absence of Mr. Spencer, Mrs. Jones called upon the president of the Burbank Choral club, Mr. Caldwell, who thanked the Glendale Music club for its invitation to be present last evening and contribute numbers for the program. He also told of the organization of this club in Burbank and expressed the wish that next year the Glendale Music club will have a choral club as a branch of the main organization, and that Burbank might be favored at that time by a program by this club.

Junior Auxiliary

Miss Veda Knapp, president of the Junior Auxiliary of the Glendale Music club, was then presented and told of the work and aims of that branch club. Although the programs given at the auxiliary meetings have been solo numbers the members are being trained for duet and ensemble work.

The newly-elected officers of the Music club for the coming year were then presented by the president, Mrs. Jones, as follows:

Newly-Elected Officers

Mrs. Frank Arnold, Mrs. Calvin Whiting and Mrs. Dora Gibson, directors; Mrs. Warren Roberts, treasurer; Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. N. Hagood, recording secretary; Mrs. Spencer Robinson, second vice-president; Mrs. Catherine Shank, first vice-president; Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president. In presenting these officers Mrs. Jones spoke very highly of the splendid spirit of harmony which had been shown by them in the work of the club during its first six months.

This concluded the banquet program and the guests adjourned to the auditorium of the church, the entire balcony being reserved for these guests.

of the auxiliaries, which, she stated, provided an incentive and interest for the children in their musical work.

Scotch Folk Songs

"A Slumber Song" (Lohr), by the Burbank Choral club, was the third number on the program. This was followed by a group of three Scotch Folk Songs by Mrs. Philip McKellar, "Robin Adair," "Comin' Thru the Rye" and "Annie Laurie," who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sinclair.

During the intermission which followed, Mrs. Jones thanked the Burbank Choral club and artists who contributed to the evening's program. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Phillips, members of the Burbank Choral club, she stated, had moved to Glendale Saturday and would soon, no doubt, be members of the Glendale Music club. She also told of the gavel which had been presented the Music club by the Chamber of Commerce and expressed the wish that it would always be used to promote good music and good citizenship in Glendale.

Difficult Selection

The fifth number on the program was the ever-popular "Soldiers' Chorus" (arranged by Gounod), by the Burbank Choral club. This was followed by a piano solo, "Saint Francis Walking on the Waves" (Liszt), a most difficult selection rendered by Mrs. Zefer Algots Sparrow of Burbank. Mrs. Sparrow is a post-graduate student of the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, and is now studying under Olga Steeb.

The Burbank Choral club presented the seventh number, "A Little Pink Rose" (Bond), and responded to a hearty encore by singing the song a second time.

Gives Tenor Solo

The next number on the program was a tenor solo, "If" (Denza), by J. H. Phillips, recently of Burbank but now of Glendale. Mr. Phillips sang at various camps during the war. Since coming to California he has appeared on various concert programs and is tenor soloist at the West Adams Presbyterian church, Los Angeles.

The last number, which concluded an evening of good music excellently presented and thoroughly enjoyed, was given by the Burbank Choral club, who presented "By Babylon's Wave (Psalm 137)" (Gounod).

This isn't quite the "Millennium," but the railroads are admitting that their rates are too high.

ORDER S. P. COMPANY TO PUT GATES ON BRAND CROSSING

sponse to our telephone message of this date in regard to this matter to the effect that you will investigate it immediately and report without delay."

Letter from City Manager

At the meeting of the Board of City Trustees in adjourned session last night, the city manager submitted the following communication:

"Pursuant to your instructions of the 2d instant in regard to the stationing of a flagman at the Brand boulevard crossing over the Southern Pacific right of way, we took this matter up by telephone with W. H. Whalen, Superintendent Southern Pacific Lines, Los Angeles, California, and wrote him as per copy of letter attached hereto.

"We also have to report that on the 13th of May, 1921, R. C. Ashworth and F. F. Ball, engineers of the Railroad commission, called at our office in the interest of the investigation that the commission is now conducting in regard to Pacific Electric service and the matter of automatic signaling device for this crossing was discussed together with a number of other matters pertaining to railroad and traffic service generally and in this connection we are in receipt this date of letter from Railroad commission enclosing copy of letter dated June 2, 1921, in which the Railroad commission requests the Southern Pacific company to install crossing gates at the intersection of its tracks with Brand boulevard or Glendale boulevard, this action having been taken on the commission's own initiative because of the increased travel since the completion of the through automobile route into Los Angeles and over this crossing at grade."

Letter to Southern Pacific

The letter from the State Railroad commission to A. L. Hayden, contract agent of the Southern Pacific company, giving instructions concerning the gates follows:

"With reference to your crossing of Brand boulevard, Glendale, which is Crossing No. 1, Grade Crossing Report No. 345,—

"You will note that under the remarks in this report it is stated that it would be necessary to install an automatic flagman and bell or gates at this crossing if the city of Los Angeles builds a bridge across the Los Angeles river, as an extension on the line of Glendale boulevard, which may be considered as an extension of Brand boulevard.

"The city of Los Angeles has recently completed the construction of such a bridge and opened a good automobile route into Los Angeles westerly thereof, with the result of a very greatly increased traffic over this crossing.

"The commission believes that it is now time to install additional protection at this crossing, and, because of the fact that there is a tower man on duty, so that gates could be operated without additional labor expense, is of the opinion that this additional protection should be in the form of crossing gates.

"Will you therefore arrange for the installation of these gates and notify the commission when the installation has been completed?

Notice Given to City

The State Railroad commission at the same time sent a letter to T. W. Watson, city manager, as follows:

"Attached please find copy of letter dated June 2, 1921, in which the commission asks the Southern Pacific company to install crossing gates at the intersection of its tracks with Brand boulevard or Glendale boulevard, this action having been taken on the commission's own initiative because of the increased travel since the completion of the through automobile route into Los Angeles and over this crossing at grade."

Editor The Evening News: I desire to announce through your columns that I am a candidate for the office of city councilman. Fire Protection To School Is Explained

T. W. Watson, city manager, has sent the following self-explanatory communication to Mrs. E. V. Bacon, 1330 South San Fernando road, president of the Thursday club:

"In regard to fire protection for Cerritos avenue school about which you inquired this morning:

"There is a fire hydrant located at the intersection of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard. This hydrant is attached to an eight-inch water main and will afford a sufficient supply of water to furnish two streams under pressure from pumping apparatus. There is another hydrant located on Glendale avenue attached to a four-inch water pipe that will supply sufficient water for one stream under a pressure from pumping apparatus. I am confident that should a fire occur at the school and the fire department receive prompt report thereof that sufficent water could be obtained from these two hydrants to extinguish it.

"We have plans for the extension of a large distribution main along south Brand boulevard that will bring an additional water supply to that vicinity, also for the laying of a large main on south Glendale avenue. In this connection we are glad to say that the $100,000 of water bonds authorized by the voters of the city on March 29 were sold last evening and that these two water mains will be laid from the proceeds of the sale of these bonds along with other mains that are planned to provide better water service and pressure to those portions of the city not amply supplied at the present time. It will be several months, however, before all these mains can be laid. One of the first to be laid will be the main on south Brand boulevard."

Four Vital Questions Up For Consideration

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Vital interests of the United States are bound up in the deliberations to begin this month in London at the conference of the heads of the British dominions with Premier Lloyd George, high officials of this government believed today.

Outside of the strictly American interest involved, it is also believed the future of the whole world will be affected in some degree by the deliberations and decisions of the imperial conference.

The questions affecting vital American interests which are expected to come up at the imperial conference are:

1. Whether the Anglo-Japanese alliance, passed to guarantee the interests of Great Britain and Japan in the far east obligating both nations to come to the aid of each other in case of a conflict between one of these contracting parties and a third power, is to be renewed before it automatically expires July 13 next.

2. Whether a major British fleet is to be created in the Pacific for the benefit of such of the dominions as Australia, New Zealand and Canada. At present Great Britain only maintains a battle cruiser situated in the Pacific.

3. The broad question of policy as to whether there can be any understanding, or "working entente" between the United States and Great Britain, to police the waters of the world, England to take care of the Atlantic ocean with the British Atlantic fleet, and America the Pacific with the new fleet proposed to be constituted on that coast.

4. Disarmament. Great Britain must first consult her dominions before she can announce her policy toward this question it is believed.

Black Beauty Feature Of Glendale Program

Automobiles have taken the place of the horse in many respects and in many fields of activity, but not in the emotional affections of human kind. This was shown conclusively yesterday at the Glendale Theatre where "Black Beauty" appeared again as the featured number on the silver sheet.

Here and there in the big audience were heard little exclamations of delight as the first scenes of the story of the most famous horse in the world's literature were presented following a tense and expectant silence as the opening title, "The first place that I can well remember was a large, pleasant meadow," appeared on the screen.

As scene followed scene, showing the colt which was to be known as Black Beauty and his mother, Duchess, many expressions of surprise and pleasure were heard in the theatre.

The pictured story of Black Beauty and his equine friends, faithfully presented in scenes separate from the thrilling human drama, fulfilled the promise given in the foreword:

"In the famous book 'Black Beauty,' known to every lover of horses in every country in the world, there is an 'outdoor story' and an 'indoor story—Black Beauty knew and told the outdoor story not what went on inside the house. This part has been added to the picture, with all earnest reverence for the immortal work of Anna Sewell."

The "indoor story" hinges on the tragic death of George Gordon, heir to Bertwick Hall, and its menacing consequences to little Jessie Gordon through the machinations of Jack Beckett, the man who rode with George in the fatal hare hunt described in the "Autobiography of a Horse" and shown in the picture version.

While the sentimental interest of the audience centered in Black Beauty and Ginger, the charm and artistry of Jean Paige in the role of Jessie made a strong appeal. There was wonderful pathos in her determination to sacrifice her own happiness to save her mother from suffering and possible death through hearing the story of George's crime.

The closing scene, showing the long race ridden on Black Beauty by Harry Blomefield to save Jessie from a dreadful fate, was replete with thrills and a fitting climax to an extraordinary motion picture play. It will be seen for the last times today.

"A Young Man's Fancy" is Madame Clement's special number at the organ. "Thru Eyes of Men" with Frank Mayo is tomorrow's feature.

WOMEN ARE HOMELESS

Kansas City is a city of homeless women. Fifteen thousand, or one-third of the employed women, live in boarding and lodging houses, according to the Y. W. C. A. survey. The employed women constitute one-fourth of the women of the city, or 46,515. Dependents are supported by 3257. Catholic and Protestant institutions which maintain boarding-houses for women house only 322, or less than 2 per cent of the employed women who do not maintain homes of their own.

Church Has Meeting In Behalf Japanese

In order that there might be a better understanding between citizens and Japanese residents, a meeting was held Saturday night at the Tropico Presbyterian church, corner of Central avenue and Laurel street. The meeting was opened by the Rev. Julius Soper reading the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians in Japanese, after which Rev. Rider offered a prayer.

Miss Edith Spencer, who, for forty-three years has been a missionary in Nippon land and who will go back there this fall to spend the rest of her life at the request of numerous Japanese converts, gave an interesting talk in Japanese. Miss Heroaki, who came to Los Angeles from Japan, also gave an interesting Japanese talk, as did Tenyo S. Yasaki, editor of Japanese Daily News.

Brief talks in English were made by Rev. Soper, Rex Kelley for the Y. M. C. A. and Mrs. Sakimoto of Los Angeles. There were quite a number of Japanese present from Los Angeles.

A very pleasing vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. R. D. Jones, also a clever reading. Her little daughter, Margaret, also sang. Other pleasing numbers were solos by Miss Dorothy Peart, a piano solo by Mrs. Campbell and a hymn by three little Japanese girls.

Beet Growers Aided By Keeping Livestock

SALT LAKE CITY, June 7.—A close relation exists between the production of sugar beets and the raiser of live stock, especially cattle, according to M. M. Justice, of the bureau of crops, who has just received the results of a survey on the question made in western states.

"The keeping of livestock enables the beet grower to make the best possible use of the beet tops, which, in connection with roughage, easily produced, keeps the livestock in good condition and enables the farmer to return the mineral element in the tops to the soil and increase the supply of humus, which is of especial importance in irrigated sections. Sheep as well as cattle thrive on beet tops, but it is wise to feed them sparingly at first. The by-products of the beet field and sugar mill that are of especial importance to the farmer are the beet tops, pulp, molasses and the waste lime."

Packer Control Bill Threatened by Delay

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—"Old Guard" opposition to the "forwardness" of western farm state senators in preparing a legislative program threatened today to result in an effort to delay in the senate the packer control bill just passed by the house.

Some of the recognized republican leaders are said to favor this as a "disciplinary measure" to teach the farmer senators a lesson. It is well understood also that the leaders referred to are unfriendly to legislation controlling the packers or any public utility, whatever its function.

They intend, it is said ,to raise against the packer bill President Harding's oft-repeated advocacy of less government in business and to argue that resirictive or regulatory legislatiton if enacted at all ought to follow the passage of the permanent tariff and tax bills and other laws which are described as "constructive."

The packer bill is frankly classed by some of the leaders as destructive.

Gratitude Of Little Children Expressed

The children of the Orthopaedic Hospital-School at 2422 Palm drive, Los Angeles, wish to express through The Evening News their sincere gratitude to Mr. Jensen and staff of the Palace Grand Theatre, and Mr. Howe and staff of the Glendale Theatre, for their kindness in showing the film depicting the work of the Orthopaedic Hospital-School, and for their co-operation with the workers who received the donations in the lobbies of the theatres.

The children also wish to thank the big-hearted citizens of Glendale for their generous and ready response to the cause. Each day a $5 bill was found among the donations. To these three unknown friends of the children the workers express their keen appreciation.

Many persons have signified a desire to donate children's books, therefore a centrally located place at the Glendale Music company, Salmacia Bros., 109 Brand boulevard, has been obtained where books may be left during the next ten days, until June 18, to add to the children's small library. After that time any books to be donated to the hospital-school may be left with Kendall Tune, 1801 East Vassar street, one block south of San Fernando Road and Brand boulevard.

MINUTES OF CITY TRUSTEES

The proceedings of the Board of City Trustees in session at the city hall last night, as taken from the official minutes compiled by J. C. Sherer, city clerk, are as follows:

The board assembled at 7:45 p. m. Present Trustees Bartlett, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson. Absent, Trustee Henry.

Communication From City Attorney

A communication was read from the city attorney calling attention to certain matters that should have the attention of the board, and the action of the board taken at this session was in accordance with these recommendations.

Canvass of Votes

The canvass of votes cast at the election held in Sycamore canyon district, on the proposition of annexation to the city of Glendale on May 31, 1921, was taken up at this time. The chairman appointed Trustees Bartlett, Lapham and Robinson as a committee to canvass the returns. The committee having completed the canvass, its findings were embodied in a resolution adopted on motion of Trustee Robinson as resolution No. 1201, being a resolution declaring the result of the election on May 31, 1921, in Sycamore canyon district, by the following roll call:

Ayes, Bartlett, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson. Noes, none. Absent, Henry.

Resolution, No. 1201

Whereas, on the 31st day of May, 1921, a special election was held, under and by virtue of Resolution No. 1183, passed by this board, in certain territory designated in said resolution as Sycamore canyon district, at which the proposition of annexing said territory to the city of Glendale was submitted to the qualified electors of said territory and voted upon, and the returns of said election have now been presented to and canvassed by this board;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the board of trustees of the city of Glendale that from said returns and as a result of the canvass thereof, this board hereby finds and declares the result of said election as follows:

The whole number of votes cast at said election in said territory was 27. The proposition voted upon at said election was, "Shall Sycamore canyon district be annexed to the city of Glendale?"

The number of votes cast at Sycamore canyon district election precinct, comprising all of said territory, in favor of said proposition, was 9. The number of votes cast at Sycamore canyon district election precinct, comprising all of said territory, against said proposition, was 18. And it appearing that a majority of the votes cast at said election were against said proposition, it is hereby declared that said proposition was defeated. The clerk is hereby directed to enter this resolution in full in the minutes of this board as and for a statement of the result of said election.

Petition for Place on the Ballot

The city clerk reported the filing of a petition by electors of the city of Glendale, requesting that the trustees submit at an election to be called for the purpose, the proposition of incurring a bonded debt of $22,000, for the purpose of acquiring land and improving the same for public park, etc., proposition including the construction thereon of a swimming pool and appurtenances.

The petition was referred to the city clerk for report as to its sufficiency. The clerk reported that he had checked on the great register of the county the names attached to the petition and that they represent more than 15 per cent of the entire number of votes cast at the election held for governor in the city of Glendale in November, 1918; and that on date of signing all of the signers were registered voters of the city of Glendale.

Resolutions Calling Elections

Trustee Lapham presented a resolution and the same was on his motion adopted as resolution No. 1202:

"Determining that the public interest and necessity demand the acquisiton by said city of a certain municipal improvement and that the cost thereof will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of said city."

Covering $22,000 proposition for park and swimming pool. By the following roll call: Ayes, Bartlett, Lapham, Robinson and Stephenson. Noes, none. Absent, Henry.

Trustee Robinson presented a resolution which was on his motion adopted as resolution No. 1203:

"Covering the $25,000 proposition for the purpose of acquiring land and construction and completing thereon municipal building, etc," by the following roll call: Ayes, Bartlett, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson. Noes, none. Absent, Henry.

Resolution Rescinded

On motion of Trustee Bartlett it was ordered that resolution No. 1198 adopted May 31, 1921, providing for annexation election in the Viola street district be rescinded; this action being necessary by reason of an error on the part of the Los Angeles Journal in publishing said resolution. Trustee Bartlet's motion was adopted, all voting aye, as resolution No. 1204.

Annexation Election

On motion of Trustee Bartlett, resolution was adopted as No. 1205, giving notice of an annexation election to be held in Viola street district on July 14, 1921, by the following roll call: Ayes, Bartlett, Lapham, Robinson, Stephenson. Noes, none. Absent, Henry.

Permit to Remove Trees

The city manager recommended that the application of A. P. Offut for permission to remove certain trees be granted, and on motion of Trustee Lapham, it was so ordered.

The city manager reported that pursuant to instructions in regard to the stationing of a flagman at Brand boulevard crossing over the Southern Pacific right of way, he had taken the matter up with Superintendent Whalen of the Southern Pacific company, Los Angeles, and that in the meantime he had seen Messrs Ashworth and Ball, engineers for the railroad commission and as a result copy of a letter had been forwarded to him in which the railroad commission requests the Southern Pacific company to arrange for installation of gates at the crossing referred to.

Fire Truck and Engine No. 2

Trustee Robinson stated that it would be necessary to have a small additional appropriation to be used in putting Fire Truck No. 2 in working condition, and on motion of Trustee Bartlett the city manager was instructed to investigate and report. Adjourned.

Here's Another Ford Story; Yes, It's True

Alex Mitchell, registrar of the United States land office in Los Angeles, a resident of 2001 Kenneth road, has written Jesse E. Smith of the Ford agency the following:

"One of our field men who came from Washington, D. C., in a Ford says that motorists who come through Columbus, Mo., en route for Kansas City have about the following conversation when they stop at the filling station there:

"If it's a Cadillac, the driver says: 'How far is it to Kansas City?' 'One hundred and forty miles,' is the reply. 'Gimme twenty gallons of gas and a gallon of oil,' says the driver.

"Then comes a Locomobile and the chauffeur says: 'How far is it to Kansas City?' 'One hundred and forty miles.' 'Gimme ten gallons of gas and a half gallon of oil,' and he drives on.

"Along comes a flivver and the driver uncranks himself, gets out and stretches, and asks: 'How far is it to Kansas City?' 'Oh, about one hundred and forty miles.' 'Is that all? Gimme two quarts of water and a bottle of 3 in 1, and hold this son-of-a-gun until I get in.'"

'The One-Man Trail' Palace Grand Picture

Buck Jones' riding and love making will set the patrons of the Palace Grand Theatre in fine humor today, when he appears for the first time here in his latest William Fox production, "The One-Man Trail." The picture is like a page out of real western life. The cowboys with their fun and their tricks give the spectators some hearty laughs. Their fun shows the reason for the expression "treat 'em rough," and though it is a milder form than the "treat 'em rough" ideas of the boys who were fighting over seas it is still rougher treatment than any city chap would like to receive.

Buck Jones gets a dose of this rough treatment when he is bidding the "gang" farewell as he leaves the ranch to go home to see his mother. In the story Buck reaches home to find his sister Grace has eloped with a villain named Jim Crenshaw—who also has slain his father. Buck jumps on his horse and rides away to bring his sister back and "get" Crenshaw while he is getting his sister. While he is doing this Buck falls in love with pretty Cressy, and thus do complications enter which you will want to see.

"Movie Mad," a special comedy, Bray Pictographs and the latest news views round out the bill. Tomorrow Mary Pickford comes in "Through the Back Door," and the crowds, well they'll have to get out through the back door of the Palace Grand on account of the mob waiting to get in.

Student Body Electing New Officials Today

While Los Angeles is balloting on city officials today in one of the warmest campaigns in the city's history, the students of the Glendale Union high school are voting for student body officers.

There is that tense atmosphere pervading the school grounds which would indicate a catastrophe, but it is only political hopes which have been or are being shattered. The knife and the knockout are vieing for honors and from every indication, the battle may not end today.

Speeches, handbills, political announcements, chewing gum and other accessories have been evidenced. Victor Colburn, Paul Hutchinson and Dale T. Wood are candidates for the presidency of the student body. Several other offices are to be filled and the contests are keen.

DID NOT WORK

"When you stepped on that gentleman's foot, Johnnie, I hope you apologized?"

"Oh, yes; indeed I did." said Johnnie, "and he gave me ten cents for being such a good boy."

"Did he? And what did you do then?"

"Stepped on the other and apologized, but it didn't work."

Dodge City Lowlands Are Invaded By River

DODGE CITY, Kas., June 7.—The flooded Arkansas river surged into the lowlands of this city early today.

The rise in the river was four and a half feet. Less than ten feet rise will not cause extensive damage, according to engineers.

Reports here early today stated the flood damage between this city and the Colorado state line was very slight, being confined to a few wrecked buildings and drowned livestock.

DOGS MUST REMAIN MUZZLED, STATES HEALTH OFFICER

DANGER FROM RABIES NOT YET PASSED, SAYS DR. ECKLES; CITY'S WATER SUPPLY

BY DR. J. E. ECKLES
Health Officer of Glendale

It is the purpose of the Glendale health department, from now on at intervals to give to the people of Glendale a resume of the health conditions as presented to date. To fulfill this we take this opportunity to bring a certain few facts to the general public.

In regard to the rabies, we feel glad to state that to date no new cases have appeared in the city although a number of dogs are being supervised by this department, that is, kept chained and muzzled and inspected to note condition as to whether or not they are showing any signs of rabies. The heads of several dogs have been sent in to the state laboratory which is essential in order that we might know positively whether or not they were afflicted with rabies; but in every case except two, negative reports have been received.

We wish to ask the people of Glendale to still continue keeping their dogs muzzled or tied up for a few more days and as soon as conditions warrant, notice will be duly given through our department inspectors, releasing restrictions which have existed. At the present time, however, it would be very unwise to release in the slightest degree our vigilance as the incubation period for rabies in a few of these dogs is at a point where it will be soon shown positive or negative, and should some of these be released before period of supervision is complete, we might have the trouble of once more instituting rigid quarantine measures and have the added trouble of caring for some injured persons who have been bitten by a rabid animal.

Eighteen Persons Bitten

The Public Health News, a bulletin issued by the California state board of health, May 25, 1921, states that during the period of January 21 to May 21, 1921, there were twenty-nine cases of rabies in animals within the county of Stanislaus. During that period eighteen persons were bitten and all took Pasteur treatment. It also states that owing to the rigid conditions imposed in taking care of the rabies nuisance, that recently it was found possible to release the muzzling ordinance as apparently all cases had been satisfactorily disposed of and no new ones appeared. Mention is also made that two human deaths have recently been reported from rabies and in both cases cases they were unable to find any positive evidence of the victims, which were children, having been bitten by any animal. It is evident, therefore, that in some cases the symptoms of rabies in dogs are so mild that infection may occur from an animal whose condition is not serious enough to give evidences of a rabid condition.

Appreciation Expressed

We wish to tell the people of Glendale that we appreciate very much the prompt compliance with the rules of the health office in regard to the situation in complying with the muzzling ordinance, even though in many cases it proved difficult and caused considerable trouble. A little more appreciation of the necessity of these regulations will mean a complete checking of the further spread of this disease in our community.

Our working force in this department has been increased by the addition of a public health nurse, Miss Helen McAlonan, a Red Cross nurse with a considerable experience in health department work. At the present time she is very busy checking school children along the lines of bettering their condition and also the conditions of the homes from which they come, and assisting very materially in the prevention of contagion in the schools by school and home inspection.

The dairies of the city and outside dairies supplying the city of Glendale with milk and cream are being inspected at regular intervals to insure Glendale a supply of pure and wholesome milk. We would be pleased very much if those who find the milk supply of such a character to warrant suspicion in any way to notify the department and same will be investigated.

Water Supply Is Clean

We wish further to state that the water supply of our city is now practically free from objection from any standpoint. The presence of pipe moss in the water has been nearly eradicated. The bacterial examination of the water shows that it is in A-1 condition. Samples are being taken daily, at various points in our water system and all of these show that the water is more than satisfactory, and we have reason to be proud of the supply.

We wish to state in regard to the water supply that the same request holds good as regards milk, that is, that any one having reason to complain of the condition of the water, will please notify the health department and prompt steps will be taken to investigate the condition and we will do our best to make the condition satisfactory.

AMERICAN-BORN COUNTESS

Rathland, one of the most picturesque counties of England, is presided over now by an American-born countess. Through the recent appointment of her husband, the Earl of Ancaster, to the office of lord lieutenant of the county, Countess Ancaster, the former Eloise Breese, daughter of William L. Breese of New York, has become the first lady of the shire. The lord-lieutenant is principal representative of the sovereign in the county and as such outranks everybody else in the shire, his precedence being shared by his wife.

A Cabinet chair is to be fashioned and presented to President Harding from the wreck of the old American warship Revenge, sunk by the British in Lake Champlain, October 11, 1776. The skeleton of the old vessel lies on the shore of the lake at Ticonderoga, having been dragged out of the mud twelve years ago.

NUMBER OF DEAD IN FLOOD GROWS AS REPORTS MADE

EACH COMMUNITY PAYS TOLL TO MAD RIVER; PUEBLO IS BEING CLEANED

By SAM I. FREED
United Press Staff Correspondent

PUEBLO, Colo., June 7.—The known dead in the Arkansas Valley flood grew slowly today as bodies were given up by the turbulent stream, while Pueblo, with thirty-five victims in morgues, rapidly recovered from the effects of Friday's cloudburst.

A murder was added to the city's gethsemane at midnight Monday when E. E. Withers, prominent citizen, whose iron and fuel plant was wiped out by the flood, was killed while riding with his son in a touring car.

The little town of Baxter, six miles from Pueblo, reported a death loss comparable with this city's. The Kendall household of nine persons perished and other farmers' families are reported missing. The Kendalls did not heed the warning to flee.

More Bodies Are Found

Three bodies were reported to have been found at Olney Springs, in the river valley.

Another is reported found at Vineland, ten miles down stream from Pueblo.

The recovery of four bodies here, including that of Dr. E. R. Cary, Pueblo optometrist, bore out fears that some bodies were carried down stream. Cary and John Still were cast up by the river at the town of Booneville, twenty miles down the stream.

One of the first to learn of Still's death was his son, John T. Still, a militiaman. The boy stopped the hearse carrying his father's body. Unintentionally the driver replied to the sentry's challenge with the information that he had the body of John Still. The boy broke down and wept.

A few bodies are reported to have been surrendered by the river at Avondale.

Conditions Much Improved

Conditions in Pueblo proper, however, were vastly improved today. During the night the electric light service was restored. Most of the residential districts and the business sections now have city water.

While epidemics of disease seem less likely to break out, the United States public health service relaxed none of its vigilance. A score of health service officers and nurses directed the sanitary survey of the city.

The plans for erecting a concentration camp for the homeless went forward today. Arrival of supplies for the camp were awaited by the military authorities.

The cleanup drive in the flood area was renewed with greater vigor today. Under a warm, clear sky the mud was rapidly drying and made the work easier.

Await Answers to Appeals

City officials awaited replies from their appeals to Washington for federal aid of $5,000,000 to $20,000,000 for relief and highway and levee repairs in the river valley.

J. L. Fieser, manager of the southwestern division of the American Red Cross was expected to reach Pueblo this afternoon to take charge of the relief. The Red Cross has given $50,000 of its own funds and is considering an appeal to the entire country.

Governor Oliver H. Shoup of Colorado issued an appeal to the state for a large relief fund by popular subscription, to be placed at the disposal of the Red Cross.

The city's gas supply was still out of commission. Coal and wood were the only source of heat for domestic purposes.

Streets Being Cleared

The principal streets in the business district were rapidly being cleared as far as the river front. The railroad yards, however, still deep in stagnant water and mud, was a desolate sight.

The Denver and Rio Grande railroad with service on its main line paralyzed since Friday was making desperate efforts to restore tracks and bridges.

Officials hoped to put through today an outfit train with materials to complete a temporary track through the valley, thus relieving the blockade which is causing the food, gasoline and coal supply in the city to run seriously short.

S. A. Davis To Build New Brick Structure

S. A. Davis, 118 West Colorado, will build a new brick building on Colorado between Orange and Brand. The cost will be approximately $4000. Plans for this building have just been completed by Bentley-Shoeneman Lumber company, 460 West Los Feliz road.

The highest and lowest points of land in the United States are but ninety miles apart. Mount Whitney, the highest point, is 14,501 feet above the level of the sea and a depression in Death Valley lies two hundred and seventy-six feet below sea level. Both are in California.

Destruction Of Two Trains Is Described

PUEBLO, June 7.—The most spectacular incident of the Pueblo flood—the destruction of two passenger trains in the union station yards as the murky torrent swept over the coaches in the night, was vividly described by a survivor, A. H. Russell, of Denver. Collarless, his baggage lost and stalled here since Friday night, Russell still showed the effects of his horrifying experience.

With scores of others he had climbed to the roofs of the coaches to escape the rising, lashing waters when his train was smashed by another string of passenger cars. How many perished in this railroad smash-up is one of the biggest riddles in the count of the total flood casualties.

Survivors who labored to drag fellow passengers out of the flood's clutches, declared not over six persons lost their lives in this railroad smash-up.

To eye witnesses who saw the accident in the glare of a nearby flaming warehouse, it seemed that scores must have been swept down stream. Russell said: "There were about 100 passengers on the Denver & Rio Grande train, of whom I was one. On the Missouri Pacific train, which hit us, there were probably thirty passengers, mostly Mexican laborers.

"We had been surrounded by back waters for hours and did not fully realize our danger when the river began to rise very rapidly in our vicinity. It seemed to groove out a new course aimed directly at us.

"In a few minutes we were standing on our seats. Next we took to the roofs. I remember there were seven little children on our train. We got them out safely.

"I think we would have escaped without much of a wetting but for the washing of huge piles of lumber against the Missouri Pacific train standing near us.

"Its passengers had likewise scrambled to the roofs. When the bulwark of timber hammered the Missouri Pacific coaches against ours, I guess I thought it was all off for us. Screams mingled with the roar of crashing wood and breaking windows.

"Some men from the Nuckelle Packing plant witnessed the whole thing. They waded waist deep to our aid.

"The coaches toppled over on their sides, making a bank along which the water momentarily swept past those of us struggling on the far side of the cars.

"I think that meant the saving of most of us. I saw a negro porter pulling out women and children for several minutes, then a telegraph pole undermined on the highway skirting the river, fell and hit him, crushing him into the waters.

"It's more of a nightmare than a reality with me. New trivial incidents keep coming to me all the time as my mind drags me back to its horrors."

These People Missing Since Friday's Flood

PUEBLO, Colo., June 7.—A corrected list of twelve persons besides three whole families missing since Friday's flood, was made public today at Colorado rangers' headquarters. The names follow:

Evelyn Williams on D. & R. G. train No. 3; Mrs. J. M. Kramshaw; Blake McElvain; Kate Crocker; Adolph Rosenlum; W. A. Hunter and family, Arcade Hotel; J. A. Rodeck and family, 811 Tenth street; John E. Gentry and family; Fred Hartman, Y. M. C. A.; Julius Meyers; D. R. Dove; Joseph W. Palmer. Y. M. C. A.; W. M. Tate; Miss Blanche Anslement; John Koplin, fireman.

Shot And Killed As He Motors With Son

PUEBLO, Colo., June 7.—E. E. Withers, president of the Pueblo Iron and Fuel company, was shot and killed while motoring with his son, Granville Withers, at Grand avenue and Eighth street Monday night.

Authorities believe he was murdered with a shot from a high power rifle.

The boy became hysterical afterward and was unable to verify a report that a cry of "halt" immediately preceded the shot. Sergeant J. E. Griffith of troop C, Colorado national guard, was standing in front of the First Baptist church, United Press flood headquarters, only a block from the scene of the shooting and was authority for the statement that a sentry's command was heard.

No arrests were made up to early today.

Mrs. Calvin Whiting Is Honored By Choir

At a recent meeting of the choir of the Central Christian church, Mrs. F. W. Pigg, on behalf of the members, presented the choir director, Mrs. Calvin Whiting, with a beautiful ebony baton. This was presented with a very gracious little speech expressing the esteem and appreciation of faithful and efficient work of the choir director. Mrs. Whiting, although taken by surprise, responded in a happy vein, which reflected the harmony and cordial relations between choir and leader. This handsome and costly baton is ornamented with four solid bands of gold, and bespeaks volumes of good will. The gift will find a field of practical use and will be treasured through coming years.

near Manzanola, lost her four children. The whole family was washed away in its house, but managed to get on top of the roof. The children slid off one by one and drowned. I do not know of any bodies recovered."

Inquest Over Shooting

PUEBLO, June 7.—An inquest was held today in the shooting of E. E. Withers, prominent citizen, shot by a sentry at midnight.

The coroner's jury viewed the car with blood and brains splattered over the steering wheel and running board.

A flattened steel jacketed bullet and two unexploded soft nosed cartridges, presence unexplained, were found in the car.

The Colorado rangers use the latter type while the steel bullet which killed Withers is regulation militia ammunition.

Captain Dennis of the rangers and Colonel Namrock of the militia were subpoenaed.

Some citizens are loudly decrying Withers' death while others attribute his failure to promptly stop his automobile when ordered to halt.

The coroner's jury is thought likely to find that the killing was defensible under martial law.

Withers left a widow and two sons.

Pictures Of Pueblo Flood By L. B. Beach

L. B. Beach, local representative for the Southern California Metropolitan Loan and Investment company, 113 West Broadway, and a resident of 1227 North Brand boulevard, furnished photographs for a morning paper today which show the ravages of the flood which inundated Pueblo, Colo., in 1894.

Those shown are but a part of the collection which were taken personally by Mr. Beach, who for years was engaged in the ore business. Both he and S. L. Roland, manager of the loan association, were residents of Pueblo.

In the pictures of the flood twenty-seven years ago water is shown at approximately the same height that news reports of today relate. Mr. Beach says no one can imagine such scenes without seeing them. When a river runs away over two story business structures, it certainly is some flood.

According to Mr. Beach the part of the stricken city which was wiped out, lies along the Arkansas river. It is principally a wholesale, railroad and manufacturing section with tenement districts. However, many of the principal buildings are located in the path of the flood, such as the Star-Journal office, Union station, Vail hotel and city hall.

It has been the tendency for the better shops to build toward the mesa which towers over the river valley and high and dry will be found the better residential districts, according to Mr. Beach. The smelters and other industries located in a suburb three miles away, are not in the path of the floods, he says.

Abandonment of the flooded district of the city and permitting the railroads and wholesale houses use it exclusively, is Mr. Beach's remedy for avoiding such a great loss of life in the future.

Only a month ago the household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Beach were stored in a warehouse which was swept away by the wild waters of the Arkansas and Fountaine rivers. They feel quite lucky in having saved their goods, but with other Coloradans they will do everything in their power to render assistance from here.

Huge Sum Is Sought In Railroad Problem

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Immediate appropriation by congress of $700,000,000 to pay the railroads what the government is said to owe them on "additional claims" is being urged on President Harding and congressional leaders as the next step in settling the troublesome railroad problem.

Accompanying this huge appropriation out of the United States treasury should go an arrangement for letting the railroads pay the government what they owe it over a period of fifteen years or longer, railroad representatives urge. The railroads owe Uncle Sam between $800,000,000 and $1,000,000,000.

President Harding has been advised to send congress a message recommending the immediate appropriation of the money. Those who have talked with him about it report him "deeply concerned" about where the $700,000,000 is to come from, in view of the already depleted condition of the treasury, the heavy taxes and the depression of business.
